PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Lord, please keep watch over your faithful people, strengthen those fleeing persecution, and protect the holy soil of Armenia—now and always. Foil every aggressor against our homeland. Defend the innocent and voiceless, Lord. Preserve the name and spirit of Artsakh in our hearts, forever. Console all those who grieve, and remember those who sacrificed their very lives in your Name. Deliver your faithful children from conflict, and bestow your peace on all mankind. With your peace, Christ our savior, which surpasses all understanding and speech, defend us and keep us fearless of all evil. Make us equal to your true worshipers, who worship you in spirit and in truth; for to the most-holy Trinity is befitting glory, dominion, and honor, now and always. Amen.

SUNDAY BIBLE READING

Bible Readings for Sunday, October 12, 2025

Fifth Sunday After Exaltation

GALATIANS 2:1-10

Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me. I went up in response to a revelation. Then I laid before them (though only in a private meeting with the acknowledged leaders) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure that I was not running, or had not run, in vain. But even Titus, who was with me, was not compelled to be circumcised, though he was a Greek. But because of false believers secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might enslave us—we did not submit to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might always remain with you. And from those who were supposed to be acknowledged leaders (what they actually were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—those leaders contributed nothing to me. On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel for the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel for the circumcised (for he who worked through Peter making him an apostle to the circumcised also worked through me in sending me to the Gentiles), and when James and Cephas and John, who were acknowledged pillars, recognized the grace that had been given to me, they gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, agreeing that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. They asked only one thing, that we remember the poor, which was actually what I was eager to do.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO

MARK 12:35-44

While Jesus was teaching in the temple, he said, “How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David? David himself, by the Holy Spirit, declared, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet.” ’

David himself calls him Lord; so how can he be his son?” And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

As he taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

NEW ENGLAND PARISHES GATHER FOR INAUGURAL PRELACY REGIONAL SEMINAR

Clergy and lay leaders from across New England gathered on Saturday, October 4, at St. Stephen's Armenian Apostolic Church in New Britain, Connecticut, for the inaugural session of the Prelacy's Regional Seminar series. The initiative aims to foster collaboration and provide practical guidance on parish leadership and administration.

The day opened with a prayer by Very Rev. Fr. Ardag Arabian, Pastor of Holy Trinity Church of Worcester. His Eminence Archbishop Khoren Toghramadjian, Pastor of St. Stephen's, welcomed the more than thirty participants and expressed appreciation for their commitment—especially meaningful as the parish marked its 100th anniversary that weekend. His Eminence Archbishop Anoushavan, Prelate, highlighted this initiative of the Executive Council as a way to create a more immediate link between the Prelacy and the Boards of Trustees and raise awareness of common projects under development.

Executive Council Chairman Col. Aram Sarafian, joined by fellow Council members, introduced the seminar's agenda, which focused on strengthening cross-parish cooperation and improving operational practices. The morning presentations covered the history and identity of the Armenian Apostolic Church, including the origins of the two Catholicosates, and traced the growth of the Armenian Church in America—from the arrival of the first Armenian immigrant in 1619 to the establishment of the Eastern Prelacy under the Holy See of Cilicia.

Interactive discussions followed, led by Executive Council members, addressing membership growth, donor stewardship, Prelacy services to support parish operations, and administrative best practices. Participants praised the seminar for its informative content and for creating opportunities to share experiences with fellow church leaders.

The Prelacy plans to continue the Regional Seminar series with upcoming sessions in the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic. Later that evening, many attendees joined the centennial celebration of St. Stephen's at the Sarah Parker Memorial, concluding a day of reflection, learning, and fellowship.

TOGETHER WITH ARTSAKH ARMENIANS
PRELACY'S STEADFAST SUPPORT FOR REFUGEES IN ARMENIA

A hundred thousand Armenians from Artsakh have been forcibly expelled from their ancestral territory following the criminal policies of the Azerbaijani state and relocated to Armenia proper. While they are trying to solve their primary needs of housing, food, and other urgent issues, they also rely on the continuous help of the Diaspora.

You can make your donations to the Eastern Prelacy fundraiser Together with Artsakh Armenians by clicking the link below.

When donating online, please note that the company that handles the secure management of our website donations asks the donors to donate an extra amount for processing fees. This allows the Prelacy to receive the net amount of your gift without any charges. However, if the extra amount they suggest seems too high to you, please note that not only is the amount not a requirement, but there is a down arrow right next to the suggested amount. If you click on it, the drop-down menu will give you options for lesser amounts or even 0. You can always choose not to donate any extra amount.

Thursday, October 9: Sts. Pantaleon the Physician, Hermolaus the Priest, and Eupraxia the Virgin.

Saturday, October 11: The Holy Translators—Mesrob, Yeghishe, Moses (Movses) the Poet, David (Tavit) the Philosopher, Gregory of Narek, Nerses of Kla (Shnorhali).

Monday, October 13: Discovery of the Relics of Saint Grigoris, Catholicos of the Albanians, and the Holy Fathers Tatool, Varos, Thomas, Anthony, Kronites the Hermits and the seven Khodajarags who were martyred at the Monastery of the Nine Springs.

Tuesday, October 14: The Holy Apostles Ananias, Matthias, Barnabas, Philip, John, Silas and Silvanus.

FEAST OF THE HOLY TRANSLATORS

This Saturday, October 11, the Armenian Church commemorates the Feast of the Holy Translators, one of the most beloved feasts. There are, in fact, two such commemorations in our liturgical calendar. One is on the Thursday following the fourth Sunday after Pentecost, which can occur in June or July; the other is on the second Saturday of October.

The October commemoration focuses on the creation of the Armenian alphabet (406) and on the accomplishments of the Holy Translators. Mesrob Mashtots, the founder of the alphabet, and Catholicos Sahag, together with some of their students, translated the Bible. Schools were opened and the works of world-renowned scholars were translated. Their work gave the Armenian Church a distinct national identity.

In modern times the entire month of October has been designated as a “Month of Culture,” thanks to His Holiness Karekin I Hovsepian, Catholicos of the Great House of Cilicia from 1943 to 1952. Armenians throughout the Diaspora and Armenia mark this with cultural events not only in remembrance of the past, but in celebration of modern-day scholars, theologians, writers, and translators.

Specifically remembered this Saturday along with Mesrob and Sahag are: Yeghishe, a renowned student of Sahag and Mesrob, who served as secretary to Vartan Mamigonian and wrote the great history of the Vartanantz wars; Movses of Khoren, another student of Sahag and Mesrob revered as the father of Armenian history; David the Invincible, a student of Movses, who received most of his education in Athens, where he was given his title because of his brilliance in philosophy; Gregory of Narek, who is considered the greatest poet of the Armenian nation and its first and greatest mystic; and Nerses Shnorhali, a great writer, musician, theologian, and ecumenist.

With the creation of the Armenian alphabet and the translations that followed, this group of scholars transformed the course of Armenian history forever. It is an affirmation of the popular aphorism, “the pen is mightier than the sword.”

The Holy Translators (with the invention of the alphabet) providentially provided divine instructions on earth by translating the sacred scriptures, in order to shepherd the flock of the New Israel. Let us praise God with a sweet-sounding song.

(Canon to the Holy Translators, from the Liturgical Canons of the Armenian Church)

“After translating the book of Proverbs, Mesrop and his students began the translation of the New Testament. Translating the bible into any language is an enormous amount of work. It is especially daunting given the absence of any Armenian literature prior to the Bible. Contrast this with the translation of the Bible into English. The most famous English translation is the King James Version, completed in 1611. The earliest English Bible was produced by John Wycliffe in 1382. But even before Wycliffe, there was a tradition of writing in English from which Wycliffe and subsequent translators could draw familiar expressions and phrases. The Armenian Bible, however, is the first work of Armenian literature. In translating the Bible, Sahak and Mesrop and their disciples did more than just a translation. They in essence created a new written language that would be a source and inspiration for all of the Armenian literature that would follow.”

Building Expansion Project

The cross atop our church shining brightly on October 5

On Sunday, October 5th following Badarak, members of Soorp Asdvadzadzin Church attended a special meeting which had been called by Der Hayr and the Board of Trustees for the Building Committee to make a presentation of the proposed expansion project of the church hall with a new commercial kitchen, office space and classrooms for the Sunday school.

There would also be a second smaller kitchen at ground level to accomodate our anual picnic and drive-thru bake sale events.

Following the presentation, a period of Q & A took place and a motion was made to vote on the project. The vote to approve the nearly two million dollar project was unanimous!

Stay tunedThere's more to this story!

Centering Prayer

Saturday, November 15, 2025 | 10AM-3PM
Fermanian Hall

Workshop Leader: Deacon Garo Nokhoudian
From Sourp Hagop Armenian Church in Montreal, Canada

The ancient method of Centering Prayer will open the door to a deeper, more personal relationship and union with Jesus. Widely used by the saints for sixteen centuries, it is being reintroduced to present day believers as a powerful way to live the words of Saint Paul: "I urge you, brothers and sisters, to be transformed by the renewing of your mind." This powerful method of prayer is an answer to all who desire to grow spiritually through a closer union with God. We invite the faithful of all ages to join us for this special workshop!

SOORP ASDVADZADZIN CHURCH MINISTRY

How Can We Help?

Soorp Asdvadzadzin Church of Whitinsville is committed to helping in any way we can. We have undertaken a new humanitarian effort to provide fresh food, groceries, and toiletries to the families who have either lost a soldier to the Artsakh war, or families who have a wounded hero who cannot work to support their family and the families from Artsakh who have recently been forced to relocated by Azerbaijan to Armenia.

The program is simple. We order Groceries online from the supermarket in Armenia, which are paid for here in the United States. The groceries are delivered the next day to the families. In addition to the families we have "adopted", we have started to help several families from Artsakh who are now living in villages in Armenia.

Response to our AGM (Armenian Grocery Ministry) has been extremely positive and we hope to continue this work for as long as it is needed.

Der Mikael and The Board of Trustees urge you to donate generously to the following organizations.

For those who would like to mail a contribution via check, please make the check payable to Armenian Apostolic Church with "Armenian Grocery Ministry" or "AGM" in the memo.

Mail to: 315 Church St., Whitinsville, MA 01588 or via the UniBank link at the bottom of page.

Your secure donation will help to continue our humanitarian assistance in Armenia.

St. Nerses the Great Charitable Fund

On the ground in Armenia, the Eastern Prelacy sees small moments and individual stories as more than just numbers and words but knows that for each person they represent an entire world. Supporting the hope of this world are the individual sponsors who through their donation change the lives of Armenia and Artsakh's children in a dramatic and positive way.
